Principal's Report week 2 Coburg West PS

Hello once again CWPS Community,

I hope that you all had an enjoyable break with your friends and families. The Principal, Mark Colagrande, has been called in for Jury Duty and as a result I am stepping in to offer an extra pair of hands whilst Mark is absent.

It has been a delight to return to Coburg West PS for a short period of time. Meeting up with the students, staff and parents has been my favourite part of my short stay. As one of our Prep students said, "The funny, curly hair lady is back." This comment made my day.

2019 Class Groupings

At this time of the year we are beginning the process of planning for next year's grade placement. Any special consideration your child may have needs to be presented in writing and submitted to Mark or Dan. They are being noted and shared, for consideration by the teaching staff. I do however wish to advise all parents that while these requests are being made, we cannot guarantee nor accommodate each and every one of them.

The process of allocating students to grades is a very detailed and complex one and the staff put a lot of thought and consideration into the formulation of future grades. As such, the students are also invited to reflect and nominate other students as part of their learning partners group. This is also a large factor taken into consideration by teachers when formulating grades. I trust you can all appreciate and understand the efforts made by all staff to formulate grades in which all students have the best opportunity to learn and develop.

It promises to be a busy term, so please take the time to read our newsletters and updates on COMPASS to ensure that you stay informed of upcoming events.

Looking forward to a positive term 4.

Ms. Carmel Lancuba
(Acting Principal)

Designing with Indigenous plants

7 pm – 8.30 pm, Thursday 1 November

Coburg Library

The Indigenous plants of northern Melbourne are beautiful and offer the home gardener a wonderful opportunity to connect with the local environment. Ben Crisfield-Smith from Crisfield Landscape and Scott Tunbridge from La Trobe Wildlife Sanctuary will give you an understanding of the Indigenous plants that are available and how they can be used in home garden design.

Mark Conroy – live at the library

7.30 pm, Thursday 1 November

Glenroy Library

Mark Conroy has been plucking, strumming and singing since he was a small boy in Western Sydney, and is now pleased to be making music all over Melbourne. Mark's energetic guitar playing, and warm, soulful voice are sure to be a delight for young and old.

Homelessness – a personal perspective

7.45 pm, Wednesday 7 November

Brunswick Library

Sammy, a successful rapper and studying to become a youth worker, is currently experiencing homelessness and without the support of crisis accommodation, would still be living in his car. He regularly speaks in schools and community groups about his experience. Sammy will share his story to help us better understand what it means to be homeless and to give us a greater appreciation of the complexity of this issue.

Australian Paranormal Society – exploring the unknown world

7.30 pm, Thursday 8 November

Glenroy Library

Bill Tabone, co-founder and director of The Australian Paranormal Society, has been interested in the paranormal all his life. Be spellbound by the stories of the society's paranormal investigations in Australia and overseas.

After the war was over

5 pm, Monday 12 November

Coburg Library

To mark the centenary of the end of World War I, Dr Cheryl Griffin will share stories from her book The Old Boys of Coburg State School go to War. She will talk about the impact of the conflict on the men, and the town, following the war. The book is based on the handwritten Coburg Primary School students' soldier book, which contains the stories of 100 local men. Copies of her book will be available to purchase on the night.
